Chamber Committees & Initiatives

Ambassadors

The Ambassadors establishes and strengthens personal contact with new and existing Chamber members and serves as the public relations arm of the Chamber.

(Contact Kathy Bacon)

Capital Area Student Leadership Committee (CASL)

The CASL program encourages high school sophomores from schools throughout the area to become active and effective participants and future leaders in their communities through exposure to the historical, cultural, environmental and civic aspects of Greater Concord

(Contact Bryanna Marceau)

Concord Young Professionals Network (CYPN)

CYPN is a professional and personal development initiative that offers networking, community involvement and social opportunities for young professionals who live or work in the Concord area. Monthly events at area businesses or restaurants offer professional networking in a social setting.

Creative Concord Task Force

An initiative that includes arts, business and community leaders to study and measure the creative economy in our region and facilitate the creation of a long range strategic plan and overall strategies for building and maximizing the creative capital of the Greater Concord region.

(Contact Tim Sink)

Education Grants Committee

Each year, teachers from throughout the region are encouraged to submit grant proposals (up to $1,000) for innovative programs not covered by school budgets. Grants are evaluated and measured in terms of their effectiveness in better preparing students for entering the workplace.

(Contact Valerie Blake)

Golf Committee

Help plan and run the Annual Funds for Education Golf Tournament held each year at Beaver Meadow Golf Course. Proceeds from the tournament fund valuable educational programs throughout Concord each year.

(Contact Valerie Blake)

Leadership Greater Concord

Plan the session days and review applicants of LGC, a program that educates emerging community leaders on many aspects of civic life in the greater Concord area.

(Contact: Valerie Blake)

Local Government Affairs Committee

This committee reviews and monitors information that affects businesses from a local perspective. The committee informs Chamber members as key public issues arise.

(Contact Tim Sink)

State Government Affairs Committee

This committee defines and formulates positions on public issues, executes the Chamber's agenda and provide information to members on business issues at the state level. The committee reports back to our members.
